- Skate Park Review: Waiting on the third reading and approval from Council; appears there will not be any opposition and we can move forward with Phase 1 of the project.
- Friends of the Park Update: Attempting to get more people involved and find better ways to communicate events and need for volunteers.
- Park Bench Donations: At this time 4 park benches have been purchased/donated to the park. Holly brought a sample of the memorial sign that will be put on the benches. Including the size and letter/space allotment for each sign.
- Park Survey: Janell presented the Commission the results from the Park Survey.
- Family Fishing Day: The fish day will be held on August 19th at Picnic Point on North Shore. The Granville Fishing Club will be there to teach the kids how to fish, provide water conservation and fish knowledge, provide fishing bait and poles. The Commission will provide the food, snacks, lemonade, water, grill hotdogs, and have candy treat bags. Two Zebco rods and tackle boxes will be purchased to give as raffle prizes for kids.
- 2024 Budget Presentation: The Commission worked together to discuss our goals for the upcoming year and what the important budget items would include. Initially we came up with these estimates:

Special Events                      $800.00

Paint                                      $1000.00

Obstacle Course                      $19,200.00 This price can be lowered, purchase options

Pickleball Net                      $300.00

Striping Court                      $1000.00

Northridge Bank has possible funds to partner with the park projects. We would need to create a presentation with our park goals and set up a meeting with their organization.

Council Presentation: Kellie

New Business: Peggy Wells donated shirts with skateboarding logo that are located at Sun Boutique, all proceeds will be for Parks & Rec.
